How to fill in

◆One Application Card per application is required. In case you need more Application Cards, please make a color copy of this Application Card or download and print it onto an A3 size paper from the APU website (http://www.apumate.net).
◆Fill in the necessary fields and check the appropriate boxes. Do not write in the ※columns.
◆Please refer to the numbers on the back of this sheet and write the appropriate reference number in FORM Z above.
◆Please use a black ink pen or ballpoint pen. You may use correction fluid, etc., as necessary.

〔Applicant's Name:〕
Write your name as it appears on your residence registry (juminhyo), residence card or passport. If you have non-Japanese nationality and use an alias on your residence registry, please write this name if you wish to continue using it after enrollment at APU.

〔Most Recent School Attended〕
Write your school name.

How to submit

◆When submitting, tear off FORM Y and Z, including the unused parts, and submit only FORM X with your application documents. Please keep FORM Y for your payment records.
◆Your application must be postmarked by the last day of the application period. Please confirm the application period for the application type you wish to apply with in advance.

Important remarks

◆You will not be able to change the information you provided on your Application Card once you have submitted it.
◆Please check that application information such as application type, interview venue, etc., is correct before you submit.
◆Please be warned that once the application fee is paid, it cannot be refunded.
◆The application fee also includes a fee to determine application eligibility.

About the handling of personal information

◆By submitting the Application Form, it is assumed that you have read and agreed to the contents of the Personal Information Policy in the Undergraduate Admissions Handbook.
